

Clarion University of Pennsylvania
March 2008

Student Transfer Credit Appeal Policy:

Students who feel the need to appeal a course equivalency on the degree audit may do so by meeting with the dean of their college. Students who appeal an equivalency are asked to provide a course syllabus which provides more detailed information than catalog descriptions. The course is then re-evaluated by the appropriate academic department.

For more information, go to http://www.clarion.edu/admiss/transfer_students.shtml#Transfer_Credit_Appeal