

Lincoln University

Transfer of Credit

Credit may be granted for equivalent courses completed in accredited institutions of higher education. Grades of C or above are accepted for transfer if the credit is for equivalent courses within the framework of general requirements or free electives.