

Lincoln University

Transfer Credit Appeal Process

All questions and appeals regarding the transfer of credits to Lincoln University should be directed to the Office of the Registrar. All questions will be reviewed by the Office of the Registrar and, if need be, will also be reviewed by chairperson of the appropriate department. It is the student's responsibility to provide any additional course information if needed to further evaluate. The Office of the Registrar will respond to the student with a final determination in a timely matter.